

Short Biography Gillian Bryant

I am Gillian Bryant. I am a current serving young veteran.

I was born in Quirindi, which is county NSW.

I am currently employed in a reserve capacity at HMAS Cairns booking travel for Sea Training Group Defence Cooperation Program.

One of the professional goals I have recently embarked on is mentoring young women in defence who are returning to work post-partum or women who are wanting advice on managing a family, work, life balance. Veteran mental health is an important focus I am keen to be more involved in this field.

My hobbies include driving my children to sport and other activities 4-5 times a week and watching live basketball games.
