

John W McDonough

Most of my working career has been in the military. I served in the Army for 35 years my role was in combat operations, training and administration I reached the position of middle management.

Working in security I had to deal with major companies. I was the owner of a successful small business employing staff from junior to senior level.

I have held many positions in the RSL from a member of a committee to Sub Branch secretary and delegate on district council.

I am a past Legatee.

I am a current member of the Cairns Sub Branch of the RSL

My aim is to serve as a member of a team which helps with health and social welfare of veterans of all conflicts.
